

EXPERIMENTA 2001: WASTE

Experimenta's Waste program explores the excesses of contemporary culture and the regeneration and recycling of ideas.

Showcasing the best of recent film, installation and interactive media throughout October, the program features the work of contemporary artists from Australia, Asia and Europe.

EXPERIMENTA

film and video program @ nova cinemas 21-28 October

Residue 6pm Sunday 21 October

Australian & international program of experimental film addressing personal and cultural residue.

Defunkt! 7pm Tuesday 23 October

Short works from Thailand exploring the discarded and the defunct in contemporary culture

Mysterious Object at Noon 9pm Tuesday 23 October

Premier of the new Thai feature film from Apichatpong Weerasethakul

Legs Eleven 7pm Friday 26 October

Curated by the Melbourne Animation Posse, experimental animations to tease the far reaches of your imagination

Tension Between Real and Virtual 3pm Sat 27 October

Video from established and emergent media artists in Korea

A Puddle 400 Years Ago 5pm Saturday 27 October

A cross section of recent abstract and non-narrative films curated by Marcus Bergner

Expired Memories 3pm Sunday 28 October

Short films inspired by the British hand-over of Hong Kong

Excess 5pm Sunday 28 October

Chinese film & video program addressing the theme of excess media lounge @ blackbox, Victorian Arts Centre 19 October to 3 November. launch 7.00pm Thu 18 October Showcasing new installations and interactive media as part of the Melbourne Festival. Exhibition features:

Sentiment Express, Shilpa Gupta, India

Since you are too busy to send a handwritten letter nowadays, you can do so here!

Excelsior 3000: bowel technology project, Ian Haig, Australia

Super toilet installation

Close, Iain Mott, Australia

The haircut you'll never forget!

Praeternatural, Michelle Barker, Australia

An interactive museum of natural history

And explore curated programs of recent interactive and web based artworks within a dynamic lounge environment.

Trash website

Utilises the web as a forum for the exchange of ideas, culminating in an online symposium on Sunday 14 October in association with MAAP 2001. www.experimenta.org/trash

Memory Packs

Explores personal and community stories attached to objects and will be presented in sites around the City of Port Phillip in Melbourne.

Experimenta 2001 offers audiences an opportunity to explore some of the major issues of our times through the work of local and international artists and writers.
For program and venue information visit www.experimenta.org